CLEO

Traditional · inspiration · on · display

A glorifying roof capturing the admiration of home owners with its traditional Mediterranean-style design.

Stone coated steel roof with nobility as the highest quality tile.

CLEO, an elegant and romantic Mediterranean-style stone coated steel roof with a classic taste. It has the aesthetic grace of the highest quality tiles and the distinguishing merits of stone coated steel roof. In addition, it is made with a two-tone colors instead of the ordinary mono tone color. Its classic aesthetic appeal and its unique coloration displayed a perfect harmony with the environment that will draw admiration from all home owners.

02

Beauty and durability.

Cleo's beauty comes from its elegant and romantic design and its strength comes from the distinguished characters of a stone coated steel roof. It is simply a perfect combination of beauty and durability that all home owners are looking for in a roof. In addition, Cleo is a light weight roofing system with easy installation.

01

Three-dimensional effects.

CLEO has a strong three-dimensional effect on both the length and width because of its unique design and the way CLEO would look when installed.

03

The beauty of two-tone color accomplished by Roser's technology

Ordinary stone coated steel roof has a mono tone on its color while Cleo has a two-tone color. The extra color tone not only enhances the overall outlook of the roof, it also vivifies the roof.
